

Las Vegas Strip Map

Which casinos connect inside, where to cross the Boulevard, and the free trams.

How to read it

-  Connected indoors
-  Pedestrian bridge
-  Crosswalk
-  Free tram
-  Monorail (paid)
-  Off-Strip station

Six ways to stay inside

- 1 Mandalay Bay, Luxor and Excalibur: 10–14 min end to end
- 2 Park MGM (formerly Monte Carlo) and Aria: 4–5 min
- 3 The Cosmopolitan and Bellagio: 9–10 min
- 4 Paris Las Vegas and Horseshoe (formerly Bally's): 4–5 min
- 5 The Venetian and the Palazzo: 5 min
- 6 Wynn and Encore: 5–6 min

Times run casino floor to casino floor.

Connected, partly outdoors

Aria and the Cosmopolitan. Out of the Shops at Crystals and over the open-air bridge across Harmon Ave.

Vdara and Aria. An outdoor walk between the two entrances.

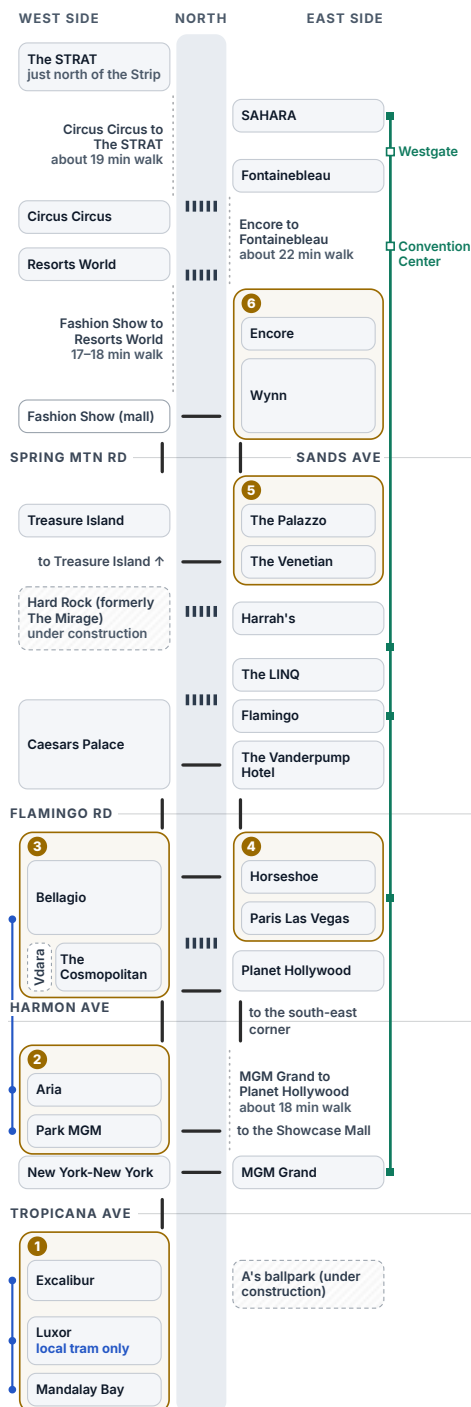

Free trams and the monorail

Aria Express: Free. Bellagio to Park MGM. Every 7–10 min. About 6 min end to end. Hours vary; check before you go.

Mandalay Bay – Luxor – Excalibur Tram: Free. Excalibur North to Mandalay Bay. Every 3–7 min. About 7 min end to end. Hours vary; check before you go. Only the local tram stops at Luxor; the express runs straight between Excalibur and Mandalay Bay. From Excalibur to Luxor, the indoor walkway is the sure way.

Las Vegas Monorail: Paid (fares on the operator's site). MGM Grand to SAHARA Las Vegas. Every 4–8 min. About 15 min end to end. Mon 7am–midnight; Tue–Thu 7am–2am; Fri–Sun 7am–3am. Check the operator's site for the day's hours before you go.

Ride times are station to station; the walks to and from the stations add time.

Scan for the free iPhone app

Casino Compass maps the inside of 20+ Strip casinos.

Every walkway, bridge and station: casinocompassapp.com/las-vegas-strip-map

Free to share with credit to Casino Compass (CC BY 4.0). Map data: Wikidata (CC0) and © OpenStreetMap contributors (ODbL).